

Premarital counseling questions every couple must discuss before getting married.

Questions about sex

1. What are the minimum and maximum amount of times you want to have sex in a week?
2. How do you want your spouse to express their affection for you?
3. What gets you in the mood to make love?
4. What turns you off?
5. Where do you crave to be touched before, during and after sex?

Questions about money

6. Will we have a budget every month?

7. Are you comfortable putting all our money together and sharing an account?

8. How much will you spend on groceries a week/month?

9. How much will you spend on personal money each week?

10. Are you okay with staying in debt or do you want to live debt free?

Questions about household expectations

11. How often do you expect to eat out each week?

12. How will you divide up the household duties?

13. What role do you play in a marriage?

14. What is your spouse's role in marriage?

15. What does the word love mean to you?

Questions about relational expectations

16. What kind of rules do you want to establish for our marriage?

17. How can I show you that I love you?

18. What is something I do now, or could do in the future that would make you not trust me?

19. Is a great career more important than our marriage and family?

20. How did your family resolve conflicts when you were growing up?

Was that a good method or not?

What would you change about the way they resolve conflicts to apply to our marriage?

Miscellaneous questions to discuss

21. What influence, if any, do you believe our families should have on our marriage?

22. How do you define emotional and physical infidelity?

23. Will you go to marriage counseling if I ask you to?

24. Where do you want to live?

25. What happens if one of you changes your spiritual beliefs?